Spring Events

Patricia Sapp sings "Can't Help Lovin' That Man of Mine" for almost 200 MEN at the FFA banquet.

Glynn Adkins, Mr. Ray Horne, Mr. Waller Everett, Mr. Pat Williams, and Mr. Steve Simmons enjoy delicious fried chicken served by FHA lasses.

At athletics banquet Coach Sam Mitchell presents trophy to Coon Shores, who tied with Kenneth Dykes for most tackles during football season.

George Vaughn reports that the FFA has won an average of $1,000 per year for the last seven years. FFA President Tommy Cook (seated) is toastmaster.

Beautiful Jackie Hall serves rolls to Tommy Cook, Mr. Cook, and Mr. Williams.

Hayward Brock receives Star Farmer Chapter Award.

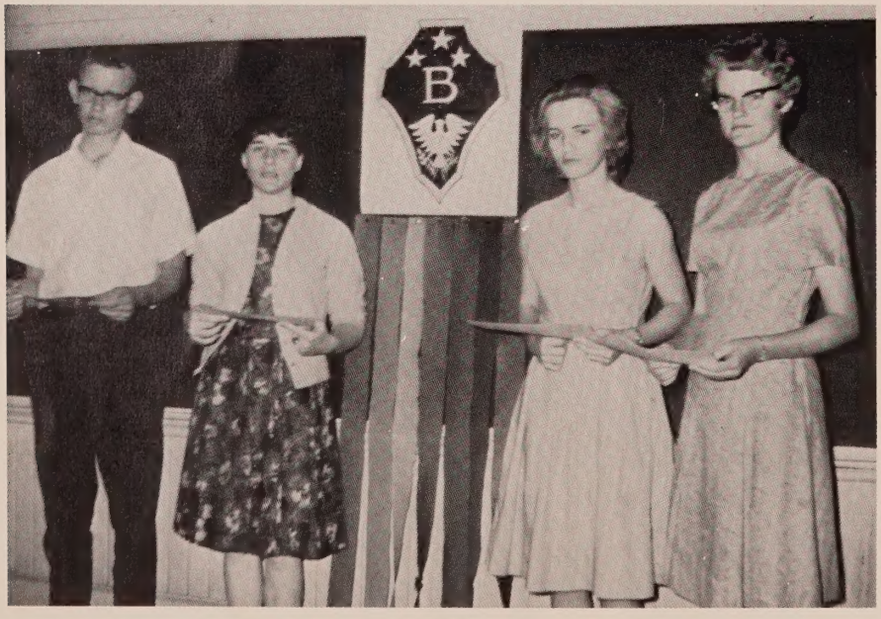
Theron Russ, Larry Land, Dwight Perkins, and Tommy Cook present Mr. Cecil Scroggins the Honorary Chapter Farmer Membership.

Shelia Cook presents outstanding member awards to Janice Brock, Olivia Hammock, Linda Cook, Rhonda Dalton, Shirley Cook, Mary Cook, and Delores Cook. Shelia also received an award.

Mrs. Josh Brock listens proudly as her daughter Janice, Patricia Sapp, and Rhonda Dalton sing "Blue Hawaii."

Principal and Mrs. Archie Hutchison enjoy Mother-Daughter Banquet.

The FHA girls were honored to have the FFA boys serve at their Mother-Daughter Banquet.



New Beta Club pledges are Jerome Brock, Laura Gilmore, Zena Stiller, and Mary Cook.

Coach Ray Horne gives instructions at home plate to Marvin Martin.

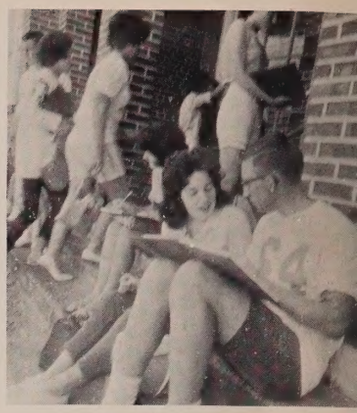
Why is everybody so happy? Because today is 'Reading, 'Riting, and 'Rithmetic Day at VHS.

" . . . and never forget, that wherever I am, I remember you yet."



Herbert Haddock and Rhonda Dalton.

Janice Brock and Sue Cook register Bill Spiers at Precinct 3 on Election Day.

Joyce Bruner, Diane Pipkin, Ernest Armstrong, and Gwen Pitts don't seem to be interested in cleaning windows on Busy Day.

Mr. Roche admires Yvonne Strickland and Sue Simmons on Etiquette Day.

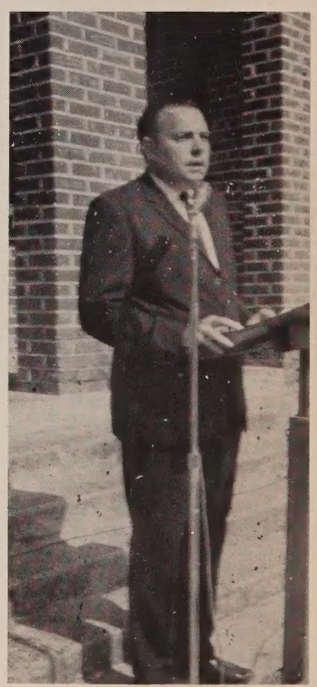
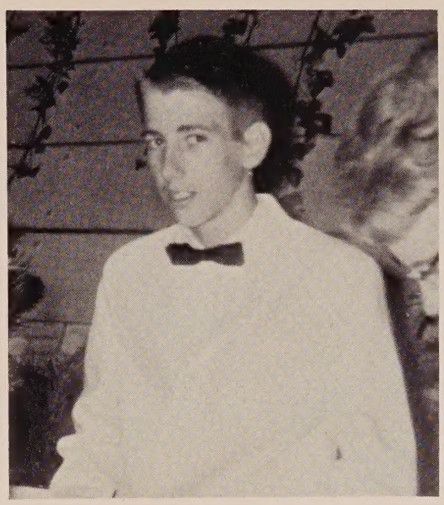
Lee Roy Chesnut, junior class president, was toastmaster at Junior-Senior Prom.



Mr. Howard Pelham was guest speaker on Loyalty Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kuykendall enjoy the Prom.

Juniors sang "Stairway to the Stars," "I Told Every Little Star," "When You Wish Upon a Star," "Catch a Falling Star," and "Don't Let the Stars Get in Your Eyes" at the Junior-Senior Prom.



Jimmy Pipkin, like most juniors, worked hard to make a success of the Prom.

Olivia Hammock and David Owens enjoy the Prom.

Ezell Burch and her escort Gerald Owens get sentimental when they hear the medley by the juniors.

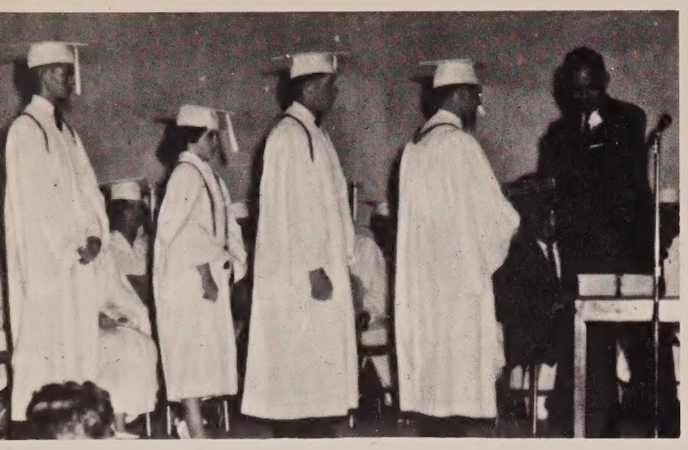
Mrs. Louan Rathke leads the junior singers in their medley of lovely songs about Stars.

These pretty sisters, Sue and Patty Simmons, do the Grand March with their escorts, Jerry Brock and Don Galloway.

Drexal and Brenda lead the Grand March.

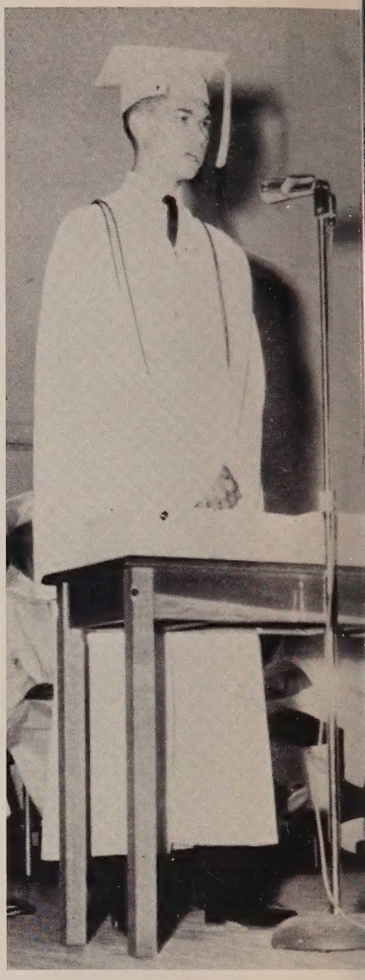
Helen Pippin, Ozeal Burch, and Linda Cook serve.

Rhonda Dalton and Kenneth White admire the lovely garden drawn by Ronnie Johnson.

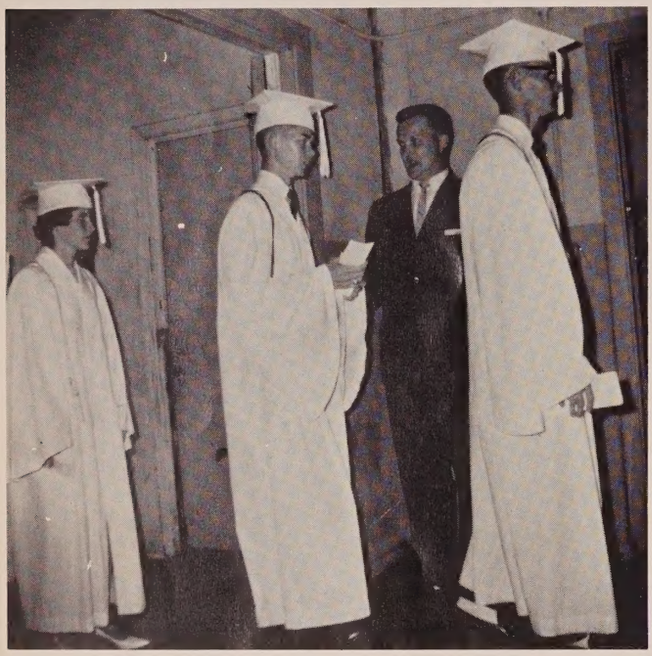


At graduation Mr. Hutchison awards medals to honor students: Bill Spiers, Pat Sapp, Edward Cook and Darrel Armes.

Patricia Sapp plays flute solo, "Song Without Words."

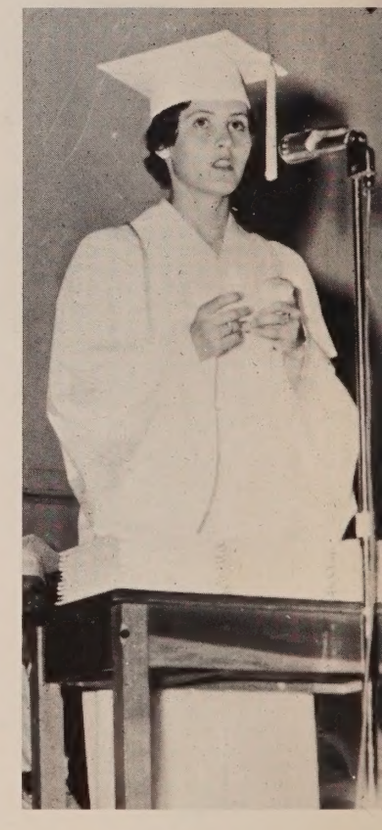


Bill Spiers delivers commencement address, "Stepping Stones to Success."

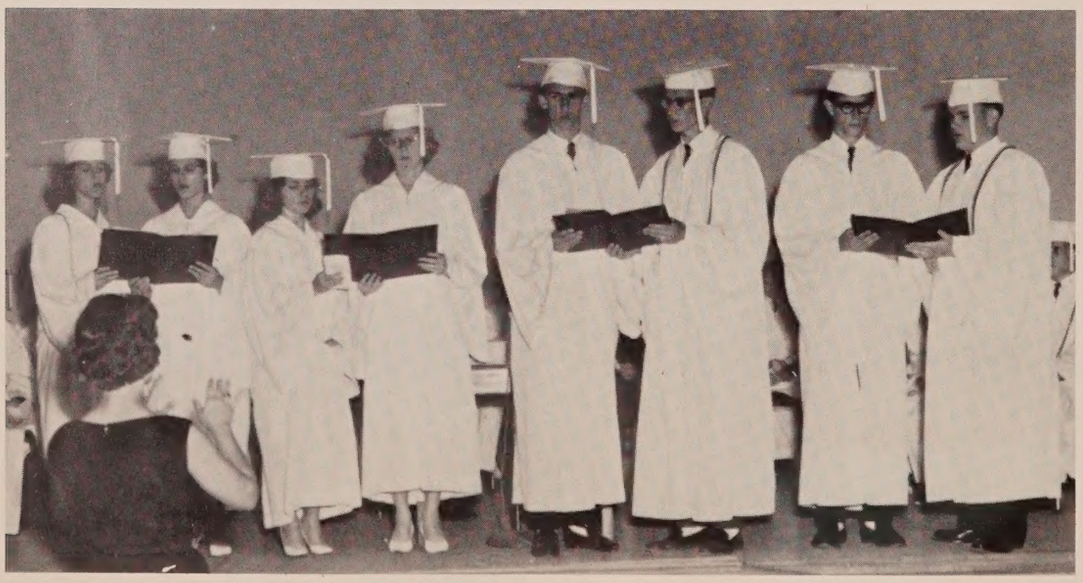


Seniors march in to Elgar's "Pomp and Circumstance," played by Mrs. Carl Rathke, organist.

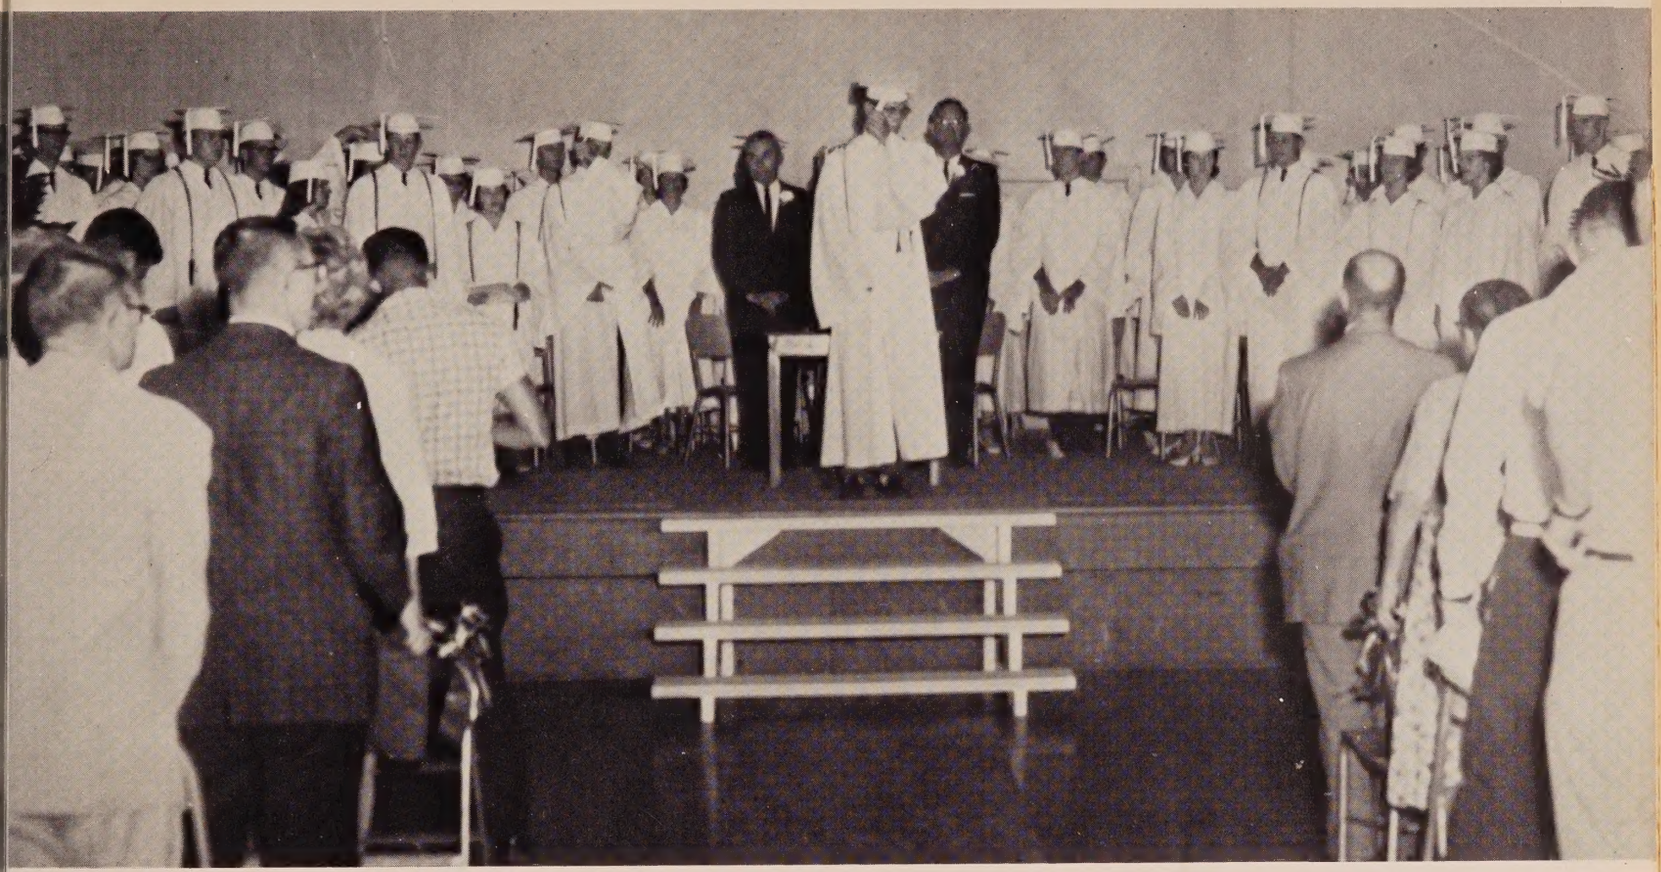
Miss Owens is ready for the program to begin.



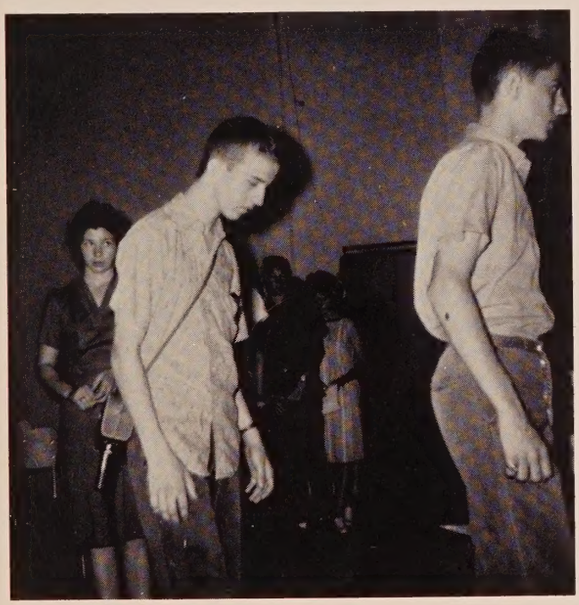
Janice Brock reminisces in her speech, "Days to Remember."



An octette consisting of Betty Pippin, Margaret Hallman, Janice Tyre, Sue Cook, Charles May, Charles Cook, Bob Wells, and Darrel Armes sings "Give Me Your Tired, Your Poor."

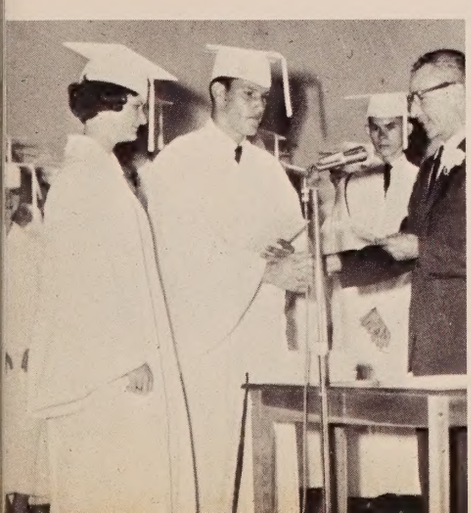


The audience stands to join in singing the alma mater with Charles Cook directing.



Seniors practice for graduation.

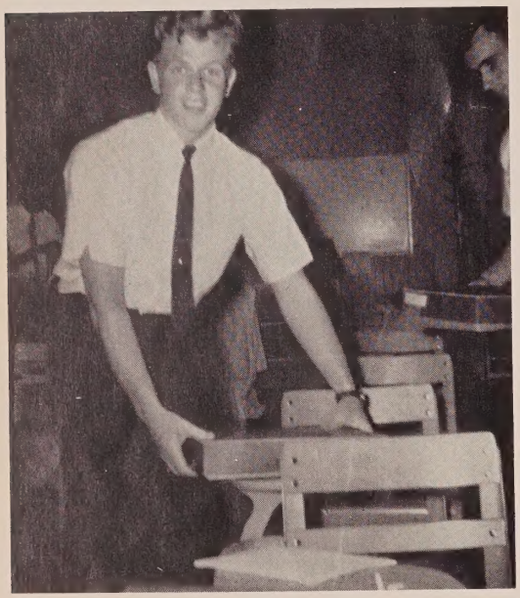
Marcus Harrell, David Owens, Kenneth White, Ronnie Johnson, Jimmy Pipkin, Herbert Haddock, Bill Miller, Dwight Perkins, and John Henry Porter usher at graduation.



Shelia and Donald Cook, twins, received diplomas simultaneously from Mr. Colly V. Williams.

Seniors march out to recessional, "God of Our Fathers."

Miss Owens directs Glee Club in singing "For the Beauty of the Earth" at baccalaureate.



Daryl checks in cap and gown.

Mr. Carl Rathke directs seniors in marching practice for graduation.

The senior class listens to announcements during baccalaureate program.

Mr. Ray A. Horne

Mr. Ray A. Horne was born in East Tallassee, Alabama on August 23, 1927. He married Miss Betty Fowler of Graceville, Florida on August 23, 1952. They have two children Cindy, 8, and Elaine, 5.

Mr. Horne received his B.S. Degree from Alabama State College, Jacksonville, and his M.S. Degree at Florida State University. Before coming to VHS Mr. Horne was assistant coach at Chipley High, and at Woodland High, Woodland, Alabama. In VHS he taught math and science from 1957 until 1961, at which time he became assistant coach.

We suffered a great loss when Mr. Horne became a National Guard Instructor in Pensacola during the 1962-1963 school term. But he returned to VHS this year.

Mr. Horne's ambition is to enter into school administration. When asked his lifelong dream he replied, "I'd love to retire in a recreational area where there's good hunting and fishing - where a man can sit on a pond without the worries of the world on his shoulders."

To you, Mr. Horne, the senior class of 1964 proudly dedicates this 1964 Jacket Buzz.

Dedication

Mr. and Mrs. Horne and daughters, Elaine and Cindy, enjoy a creek-bank picnic.

Superlatives

Every school boasts of outstanding personalities. There are those who are natural born leaders, others excel scholastically, some have the faculty to take a complicated job and see it through to completion. Others because of their natural beauty enjoy the admiration of their fellow students.

The yearbook would like to record for future history and in a sense give recognition to the following students for being Vernon High School's outstanding personalities.

Football — The Sport for Men

Everyone of the boys on the next four pages has proved he has what it takes. These are the boys who were fighting for your school every Friday night. This year we played some of the top teams in Northwest Florida - and came out on top.

This year we had none of the glory seekers of the past years. Every one of the boys was playing because he enjoyed playing. But more important because he wanted to support his, and your, school. This was demonstrated this year by the fact that we had the best playing team in Vernon's history. This was because of teamwork, not stars. We will always have a good team if we remember this.

Vernon Coach Named Panhandle Conference Coach of the Year

We didn't lose one single game. The teams we played will remember us. We certainly gave them something to think about. They realize Vernon High is no second rate school. And it never will be if the students realize that no team or school can exist without team work.

Where does a team learn TEAMWORK? From the coaching staff. We were proud of our coaching staff this year. Our head coach, Mr. Sam Mitchell, was voted Panhandle Conference Coach of the year by all the coaches in the Panhandle Conference.

The crowd plays a very important part in a ballgame. The Pep Club and cheerleaders lead the crowd in cheers. The players love to hear us cheer when they have done a good job. Let's stay behind our Champs. That's what makes Vernon High School the best anywhere!

VHS Students Learn About Dates and Mates

Dr. Edwin Hartz after being introduced at the Family Life Institue banquet.

Dr. Hartz, professor of social welfare at Florida State University, headed the Family Life Institute, November 3-6. He is an ordained Methodist minister and a former U.S. Navy chaplain. Dr. Hartz received his Ph.D. from Duke University.

Purpose of the Family Life Institute was to prepare junior high students for dating and senior high students for engagement and marriage. Discipline of teenagers by parents was discussed.

The churches in and around Vernon gave a banquet Sunday evening in the school cafeteria. Coca-Cola Bottling Company furnished soft drinks for the banquet and the Supreme Ice Cream Company gave ice cream. Later Sunday a combined worship service was conducted in the auditorium.

Each day Monday-Wednesday high school classes met by grades with Dr. Hartz, where he lectured, led discussions, answered questions. Individual conferences were held all Wednesday afternoon.

Following the banquet, Dr. Hartz, Mr. and Mrs. Arol Hudson, and Mr. Don Kendrick talk over plans for the coming week.

Mr. William Moon, Dr. Hartz, and Rev. James Morris made most of the plans for the Family Life Institute.

Mrs. Hugh Wells talks to Dr. Hartz after the panel discussion Tuesday night.

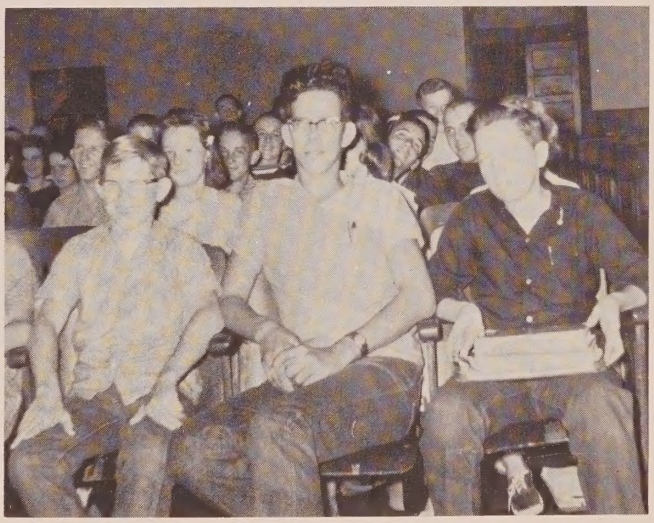
Parents and other interested adults heard a lecture and saw a filmstrip on Monday evening. On Tuesday evening adults and teenagers attended a conference. A panel consisting of faculty members, parents, and members of the senior class discussed how to improve parent-teenage relationships.

Dr. Hartz spoke to the Beta Club at activity period Tuesday, using the Beta Creed for his subject. At the same period Wednesday he addressed the student body in assembly.

Janice Brock and Mr. Moon read questions seniors want answered.

Darrel Armes, Jimmy Pipkin and Cheryl Weaver join in the Beta song just preceding Dr. Hartz's lecture.

There wasn't enough time to answer the questions asked by the VHS Seniors.



Dr. Hartz didn't have any trouble holding the interest of the VHS students. He had just told this 9th grade group a joke.

Seniors have their eyes centered on Dr. Hartz as he lectures in the high school assembly, Wednesday, November 6.

All tenth grade faces turned to Dr. Hartz as he answered their questions.

A rapt audience, consisting of glee club members, listens to the band's "Ring, Christmas Bells."
